Melanoma Patient Education Symposium
The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center Eye and Ear Institute – Columbus, OH
Saturday, May 7, 2016

8:00 – 9:00 am  Registration and breakfast

9:00 – 9:10 am  Welcome
Phuong Hoang, MSN, RN, CNP
Nurse Practitioner
Thomas Olencki, DO
Clinical Professor of Internal Medicine

9:10 – 9:40 am  Melanoma: What do the newly approved therapies mean to you?
Kari Kendra, MD, PhD
Associate Professor of Internal Medicine

9:40 – 10:10 am  Inherited Risk and Prevention of Melanoma
Joanne Jeter, MD, MS
Associate Professor of Medicine

10:10 – 10:40 am  Immunotherapy and the Role of Surgery for Advanced Melanoma: Clinical trials, Intra-Lesional Therapy and Checkpoint Inhibitors
J Harrison Howard, MD
Assistant Professor of Surgery

10:40 – 10:50 am  Break

10:50 – 11:20 am  Update on Melanoma Prevention & Diagnosis
Shannon Trotter, DO, FAOCD
Assistant Clinical Professor & Director of Pigmented Lesion Clinic at The James

11:20 – 11:50 am  How Do Clinical Trials Work?
Lauren Kulesza, MA
Clinical Research Coordinator

11:50 – 12:10 pm  Q & A panel

12:10 – 12:45 pm  Victory Choir / Lunch
Urbiel Christopher, PhD
Choir Director

12:45 – 1:15 pm  Ocular Melanoma Update
Srinivasa Sai A Kondapalli, MD
Fellow

1:15 – 1:45 pm  Survivorship Nutrition Guidelines
Amber Martin RD, CSO, LD
Outpatient Clinical Oncology Dietitian

1:45 – 2:00 pm  Break

2:00 – 2:30 pm  Are Herbal Medications Right for Me?: What to Consider When Choosing an Herbal Supplement
Lauren Ledbetter, RPh, Pharm. D.
Melanoma Pharmacy Specialist

2:30 – 3:00 pm  Caring for the Caregivers
Janette M Cole, BSN, RN

3:00 – 3:10 pm  Closing & Evaluations
Phuong Hoang, MSN, RN, CNP